32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thanksgiving is coming soon, and it is time to think about how we will celebrate the holiday. Family gatherings, great food and football seem to dominate the day. But shouldn't we be more deliberate in our celebrations? Isn't there something we can do to highlight the meaning and purpose of Thanksgiving? Wouldn't it be a better day if we actually gave thanks?

Traditionally, Thanksgiving expressed the colonists' gratitude for the harvest. It was a time to share the bounty of the fields and acknowledge the goodness of others as they struggled to survive. It was a time to give thanks to God for His blessings and to give something back to those who contributed to their success. It had a religious theme to it, especially since the early settlers were Puritans. but now, it is considered a secular holiday, although many, even in our government, still offer public prayers to God and add a spiritual dimension to the holiday, making it more than a harvest festival.

Plan something special for your family. Think about how you can express your thanks by helping someone else. Go through your closets and donate to a clothing drive. Call the local food bank and see what items are needed. Rake the leaves for an elderly neighbor or invite someone who is alone to share your Thanksgiving meal. Gratitude is only an idea until you express it. Make sure your family is loud and clear!

Sock Drive for Homeless Veterans THIS Weekend, November 11 & 12

Before all Masses, youth from our grades 5 & 6 Family Faith Formation program will be collecting donations of unopened new, first quality socks. Donations of new underwear and winter gloves & hats will also be accepted. Donations will be delivered to Veterans, Inc. in Worcester to help local homeless veterans and their families.

THANK YOU in advance for you generosity!

News & Updates

"Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary to see your power and your glory, for your kindness is a greater good than life; my lips shall glorify you."
(Psalm 63:3-4)

The Lord's Day is a privileged time for attending Mass and spending time together as a family. Remember when growing up, you actually dressed up in your Sunday best and went to church as a family. Maybe, afterwards family members would come over for coffee and donuts and you all just visited together. Or perhaps you would take a drive to your grandparents' house to have dinner and play games during the afternoon. What has happened to those days? Sundays is meant to be a day of prayer, a day of togetherness, in short, a day of re-creation for our families.

May the Peace of the Lord be with you always,
